Glossary

Alb white vestment worn by priest, the first vestment put on.

Altar "Lord's Table" "Place of Sacrifice" Consecrated Table marked with five(5) crosses and containing a "Relic" of a Saint.

Altar Candles Stationary Candles on the Altar and next to the Tabernacle

Altar Server Lay person that assist the Celebrant of the Mass.

Ambo the podium from with the Reading and Gospel are read.

Aspergillum the instrument used to sprinkle/dispense "Holy Water".

Boat the container used to hold/store incense prior to use.

Cassock long base vestment worn by servers of the Holy Mass. Usually black, other colors by be worn depending of the "Liturgical Calendar" and/or Feast.

Chalice the vessel used during Mass that holds the wine that becomes the "Blood of Christ".

Chasuble the outer vestment worn by the priest, covering all of the rest of his vestments. Various colors based on the "Liturgical Calendar" and/or Feast.

Ciborium the vessel with a lid that holds the host and/or "Body of Christ"

Cincture cord that is tied around the priest's waste to secure loose fitting "Alb".

Collect the opening Prayer after the "Lamb of God" and before the "Readings"

Corporal square white cloth, with a "cross" in the center, that is place on the Altar upon which the Chalice, Paten, and Ciborium are place during the "Liturgy of the Eucharist".

Credence Table the located in the "Sanctuary" where articles are placed when not in use.

Cross Bearer "Crucifer" the person that carries the Cross to lead the Entrance and Recessional Processions

Cruet small vessel that contains the water and wine used during Mass

Finger Towel white linen used by the Priest to dry his fingers after the (Lavabo Towel) "Washing of his Hands".

Lavabo small bowl of water that the Priest uses for washing of his fingers.

Lectionary the book which contains the Gospel readings.

Lunette glass instrument that fit into the "Monstrance" and holds the Host visible for "Adoration".

Moment of Silence times/moments designed for "Sacred Silence" example: at the "Collect" the Celebrant will say, "Let Us Pray" and then pause. This is a "Moment of Silence" to ReCollect ones thoughts and intentions for the Mass ie: Eucharistic Intention.

Monstrance vessel used to hold the "Lunette".

Narthex the front area of the church between the main/outside entrance doors and the doors to the Nave and Sanctuary.

Nave the part of the church where the pews and choir are located.

Pall the flat square that covers the Paten and the Chalice.

Paten the plate shaped vessel that matches the Chalice that holds the Host which becomes the "Body of Christ".

Processional Cross The Crucifix on a pole carried in processions.

Purificator the rectangular white cloth, with a "cross" in the center, that is used for the Cleansing/"Purification" of the Ciborium, Paten, and Chalice.

Roman Missal the book which contains the prayers that the priest uses at the altar.

Rubric the "written in Red" text; the rules and processes used during Mass.

Sacristy the room in the church where the vestments, sacred vessels, other furnishings for the Holy Mass are kept.

Sacristan the person in charge of setting up the Sanctuary prior to the Holy Mass and cleaning up after the Holy Mass.

Sanctuary the section of the church where the Altar is located.

Sedilia Officiating Clergy's Chairs

Stole narrow vestment (about 4 inches wide) worn by the priest under his Chasuble.

Surplice the outer White vestment worn by servers of the Holy Mass.

Tabernacle Liturgical furnishing that houses the Holy Eucharist outside of the times of

Mass

Thurible the container in which charcoal and incense are burned.

Thurifer the server in charge of the "Thurible".

Transubstantiation the moment the the "Host" changes to the "Body of Christ" and the wine into the "Blood of Christ".

Torch the Candles that are carried by the Altar Servers; Entrance, Gospel, Recession/Exit